Meltdown and Spectre Exploits?

DCB Products Are Not Vulnerable 1/10/2018

Some customers have asked about these newly discovered CPU exploits and if they affect our products.

We're happy to advise that all products manufactured by Data Comm for Business are secure from the Meltdown and Spectre exploits. They simply don't apply to our products and no updates are necessary.

For more information about the exploits and how they may affect your other equipment, visit the informational website <https://meltdownattack.com/>.
